PROGRAMME

LA KARAVANE

Atlantic Desert Edition

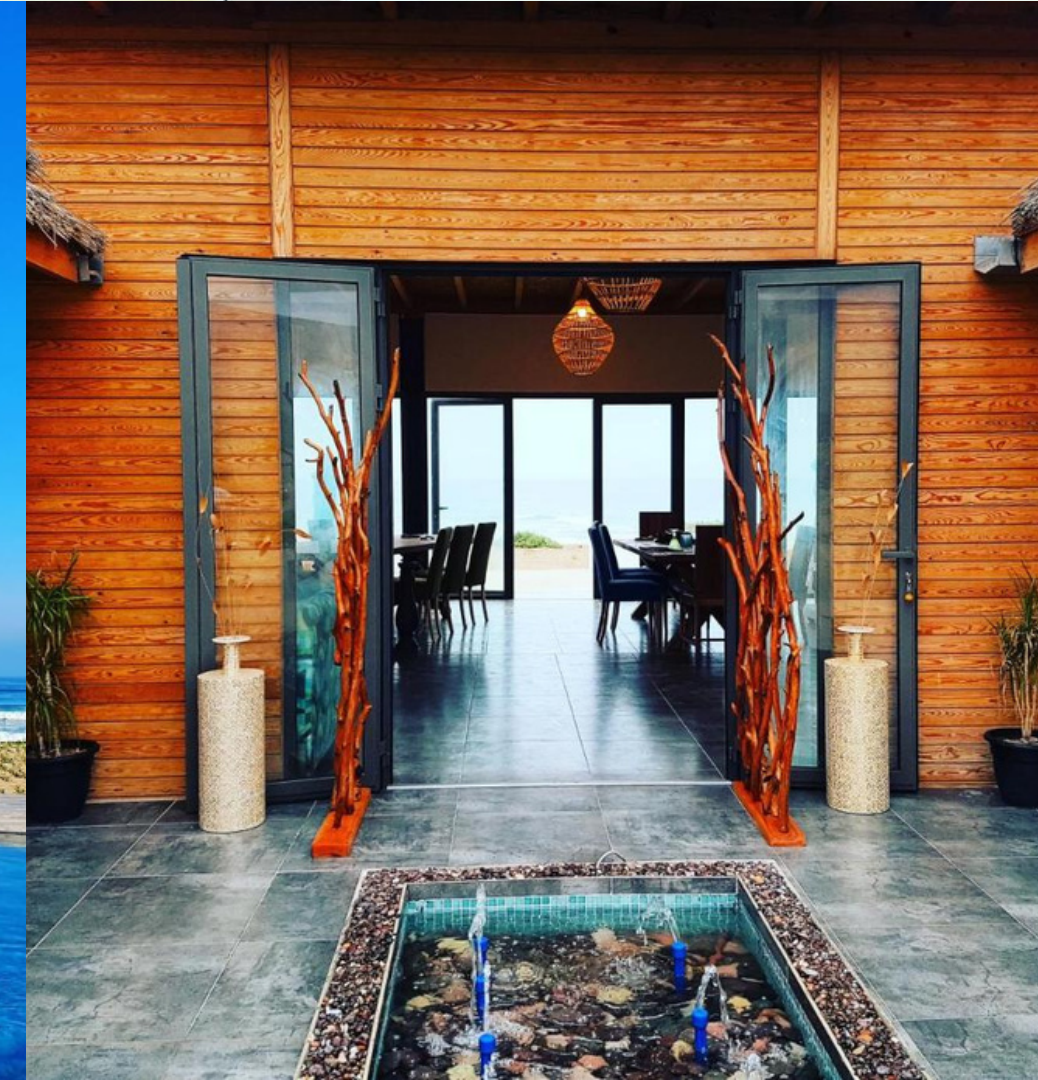

DAY 1

Our adventure starts when we pick you up with the RV's from either Marrakech or Agadir airport.

From there we will drive to Greenwave Ecolodge, located between Souss-Massa National Park and Mirleft.

Here we will welcome you for a first cocktail at sunset, followed by a convivial dinner.

You will have all the opportunity to relax in a peaceful setting facing the ocean, as you can enjoy the swimming pool as well as the private beach.

DAY 2

After breakfast at the hotel, our Karavane of RV's will take the road towards Oued Noun-Foum Assaka.

Here we will set up our bohemian RV village in a beautiful landscape setting, with breathtaking sunsets. The camp will include a charming chill-out lounge, as well as a dining area and DJ booth with dancefloor.

Cut off from the world, we will spend two nights in this little paradise, enjoying freshly caught fish as well as some dishes prepared by our chef.

DAY 3

Enjoy a breakfast facing the waves after waking up, before moving on to cleaning the beach that welcomes us for these two days.

At the end of the morning, we will leave our RV's for an adventure cruising the desert in 4x4's.

Direction: The White Beaches of Guelmim.

These magnificent dunes will welcome us for lunch and a relaxing afternoon before returning to our camp.

DAY 3 EVENING

Upon our return, we will enjoy an aperitif at sunset before a lavish dinner prepared by our chef.

Afterwards, it's time for our theme party night.

Welcome to the dance floor where Amine K will be awaiting us at the turntables for some soul-touching music.

Together we will dance the night away under the stars.

DAY 4

After breakfast, we will depart to travel deeper into the desert.

Arriving at our destination just before sunset, the next RV village will already be waiting for you, with a total new set up and different decor, but of course with the same cozy spaces and areas for relaxing, dining and partying.

After a sunset dinner prepared by our chef, we will visit a nearby area for a true local experience, a bedouin night.

Here, we will enjoy an impressive traditional dance, and we will hear stories about the local culture told by a storyteller.

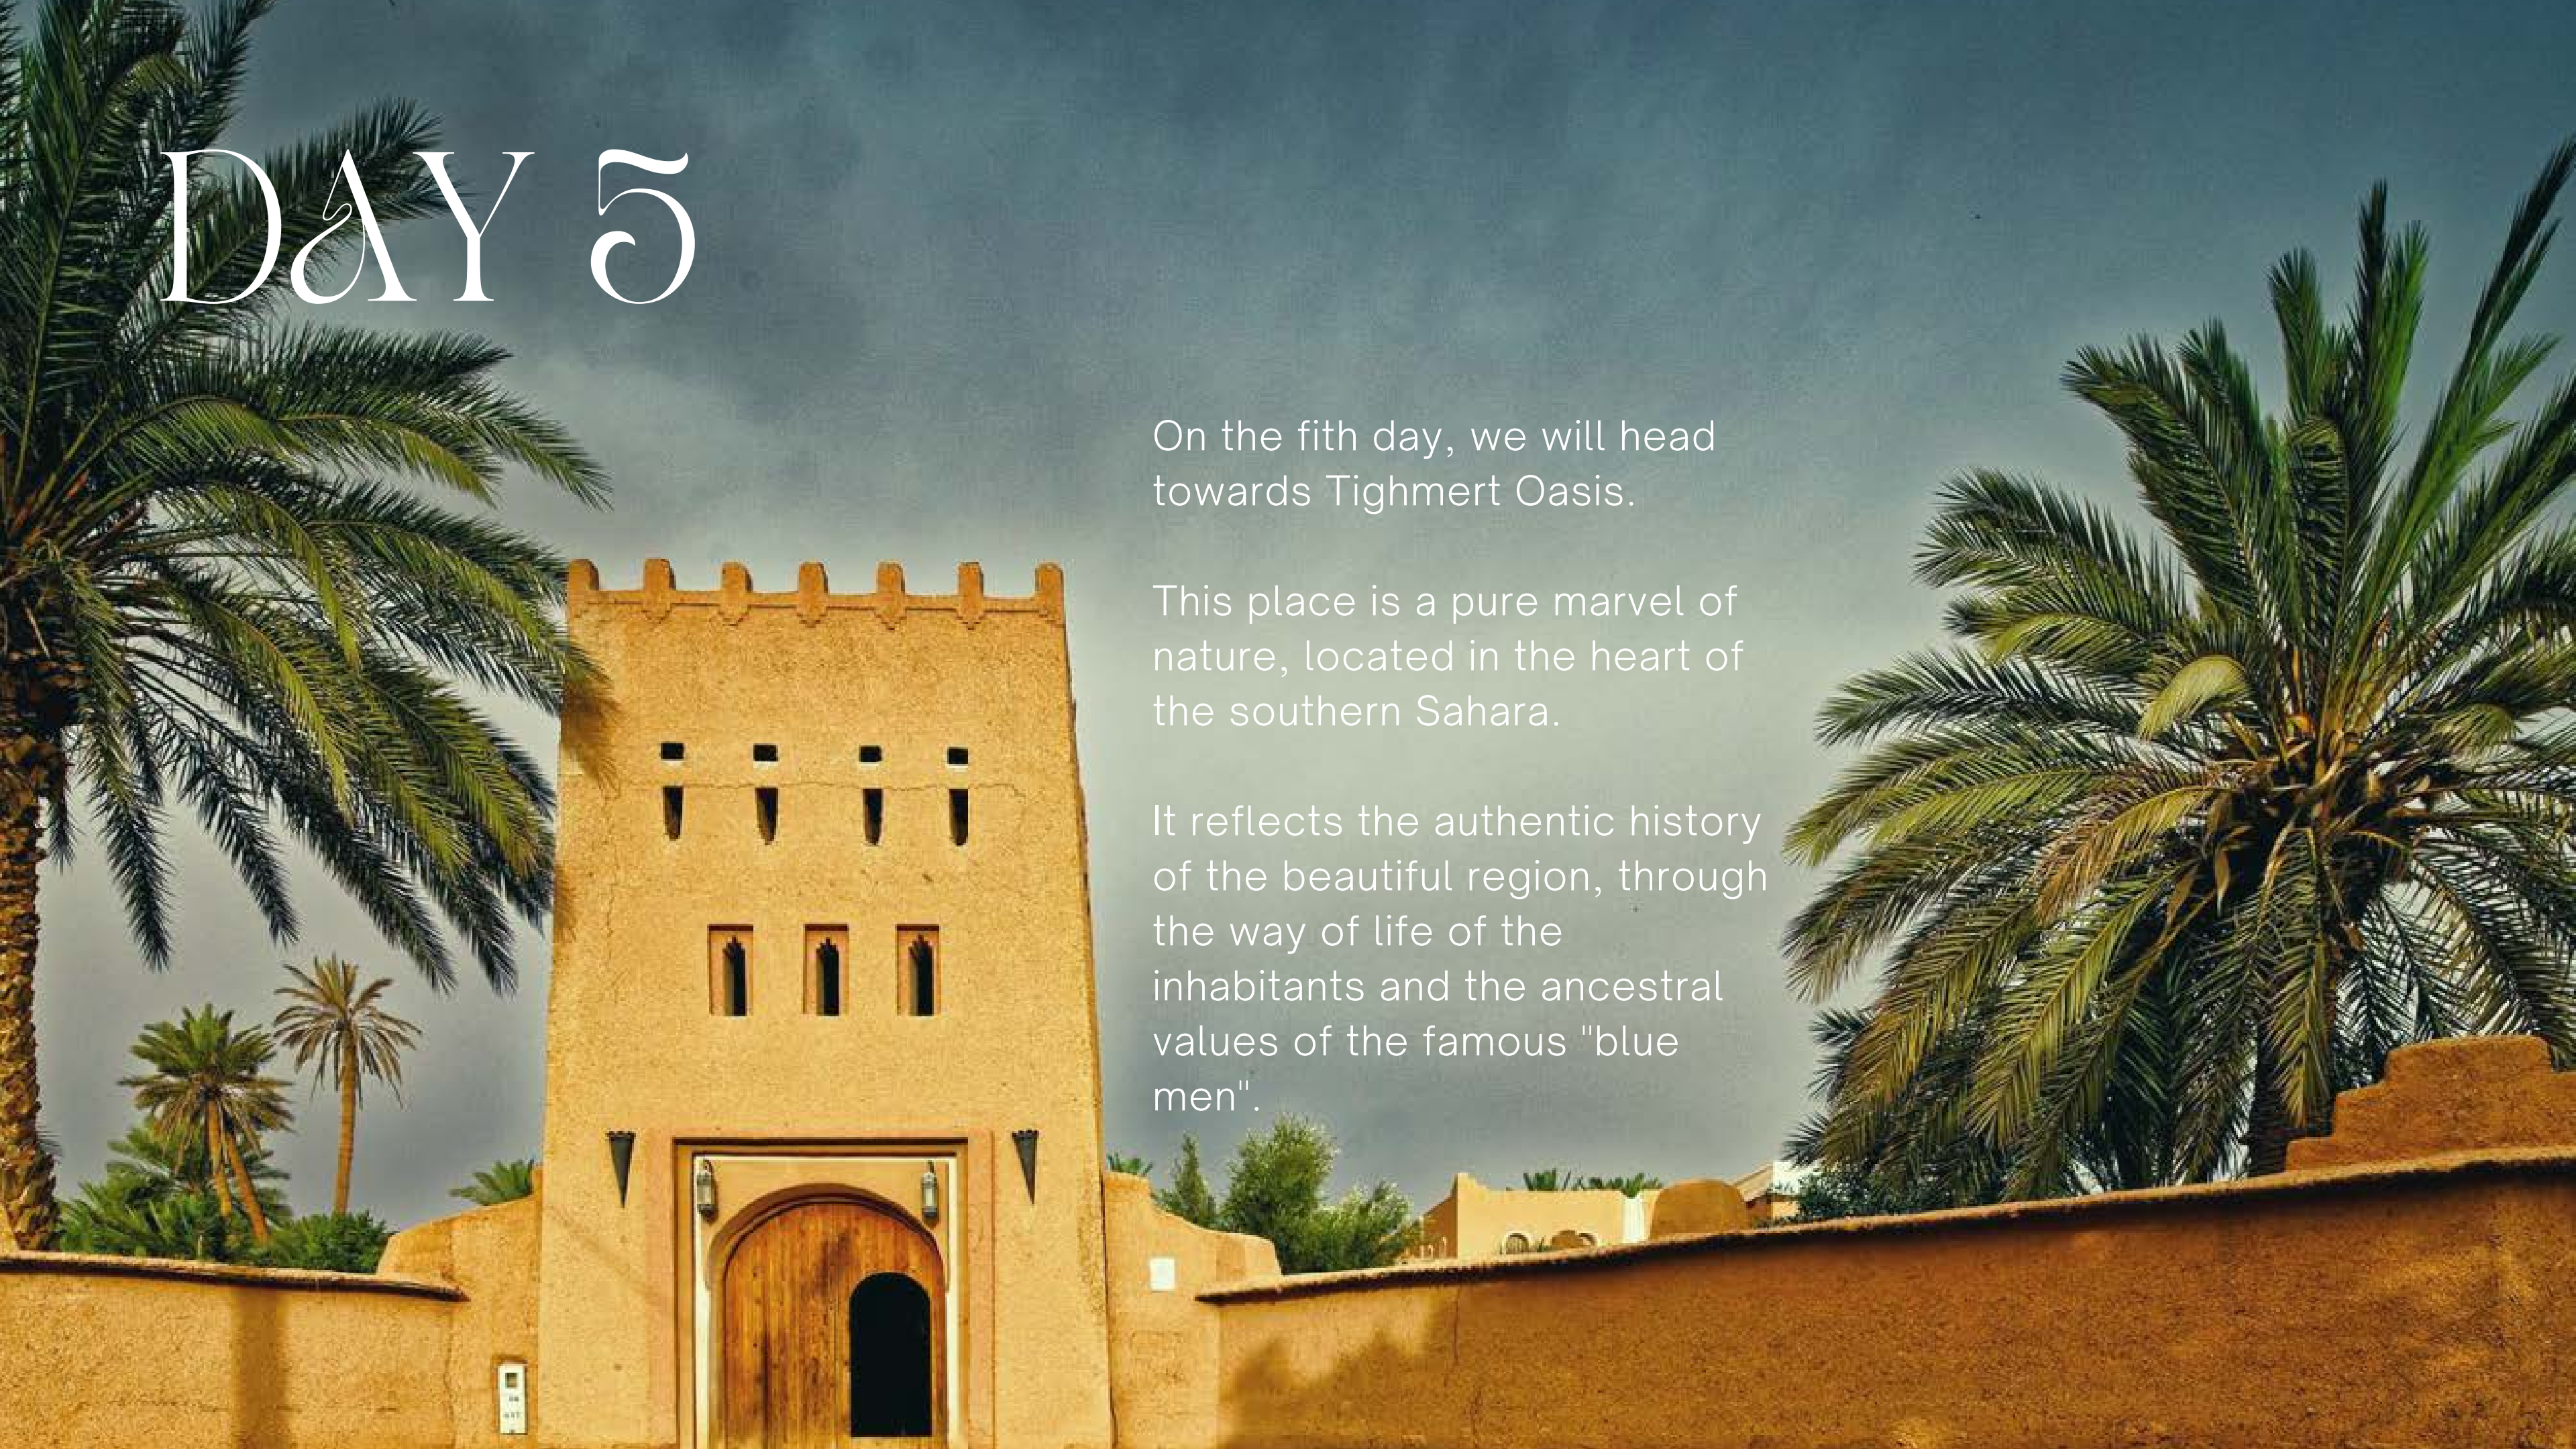

DAY 5

On the fifth day, we will head towards Tighmert Oasis.

This place is a pure marvel of nature, located in the heart of the southern Sahara.

It reflects the authentic history of the beautiful region, through the way of life of the inhabitants and the ancestral values of the famous "blue men".

DAY 5

We will also visit Villa Boujouf, where you are invited to taste the camel cheese produced in the villa.

The evening continues with an aperitif at sunset, with a view of the oasis, followed by a local dinner.

The owner of the premises, François, will take the time to share his passion and knowledge with us.

He will treat us to a unique session about astronomy, for example.

DAY 6

On the last day we will head to Taroudant. This picturesque town, protected by superb ochre-coloured ramparts, will welcome us for the night.

We will stay at the gorgeous Dar Al Hossoun, the first and only “garden lodge” in Morocco.

Enjoy total relaxation in their gardens and surroundings all afternoon.

The evening will begin with a cocktail on the terrace, followed by a Mediterranean dinner and a final music evening with a dj.

DAY 7

We will have breakfast before check-out and depart at noon.

We will stop on the road for a last lunch, before arrival in Marrakech or Agadir.
