About LA KARAVANE

The concept of La Karavane was born during the pandemic when global restrictions disrupted our lives, forcing us to look inward. With International borders closed, we invited Moroccans to discover how beautiful their country really is, while enjoying the riches of life; good food, fun activities, human connection, cultural experiences and soul-touching music.

Traveling to some of the most rural areas of Morocco, we avoid the 'touristic' route to give you a true local experience. Accommodations are a mix of simple guesthouses and luxurious hotels, while the magic creators of MAEV Events find the perfect moments to set up cozy and bohemian camps, dinner tables and DJ booths in secluded areas. Imagine an empty beach or desert landscape where we eat, drink, dance and party in the open air under the stars...

Limiting capacity to a small group of people (max 30), guests consist mostly of friends and referred acquaintances to ensure an open and positive vibe. It's the human connection that makes La Karavane such a unique experience, fostering long-term friendships in the process.

Post-pandemic, we welcome travelers worldwide to join this all-inclusive journey where everything is arranged for you. From beginning to end, you are treated to a daily schedule of meals and activities together. All you have to do is enjoy yourself!

This edition is extra special, ending the week in crescendo with a 2-day pass to Transahara festival. Located in the middle of the sand dunes, it's one of the world's most authentic desert festivals, with a deep house stage, a psytrance stage and lots of unique art and entertainment.

Do you feel the butterflies already?

PROGRAMME

DAY 1

Our adventure starts when we pick you up from the departure point in Marrakech. We will drive to our first destination, the historical kasbah village of Ait Benhaddou. After lunch, there is enough time to discover the fortified village that is a UNESCO Heritage site.

Arriving at the first hotel, we break the ice immediately with our first chef's dinner followed by the first music party by Amine K. So get your feet up on the dancefloor!

DAY 2

A woman in a black abaya is walking away from the camera down a long, brightly lit corridor of an Egyptian temple. The corridor is lined with large, ornate columns. The columns have a blue base with a gold diamond pattern and a gold upper section. The ceiling is decorated with hieroglyphs. The lighting is warm and golden, creating a dramatic atmosphere. The woman is silhouetted against the bright light at the end of the corridor.

After breakfast at the hotel, we will visit the Atlas Movie Studios where countless International movies and tv-shows have been filmed, including the sets where Games of Thrones, The Mummy, Gladiator and Babel have been shot.

After a lovely lunch, we will hit the road to our next accommodation in Fint Oasis, where we will settle in until it's time for dinner together.

DAY 3

After breakfast, we will head out for our next excursion to the beautiful natural environment of Gorges Dades.

After lunch we will go on an upward hike, reaching the best points for amazing views of the wonderful landscapes the area is known for such as Dades Valley and Monkey Fingers Canyon (locally known as Cliff of Talmat).

Arriving at our next hotel in the early evening, we will get ready for a traditional Moroccan night with dinner and live music by a local band.

DAY 4

On the fourth day after breakfast, we will finally head towards Merzouga, with the magnificent orange-hued dunes of Erg Chebbi.

On the way, we will stop at Chez Hassan for lunch, and have an afternoon pool party in the sun with drinks and music in the pool area. Later we will head on to our next accommodation: a cozy desert camp in the middle of the dunes.

DAY 4

After arriving at the camp we will take 4x4's to the middle of the dunes to the starting point of our camel ride by sunset.

This area is a pure marvel of nature, located in the heart of the southeastern Sahara.

On arrival back to our camp dinner awaits us with live music by the Sol Sahara Blues Band.

DAY 5-6

On the 5th day, we will check in at Riad Xaluca, our home for 2 nights. This serene abode is conveniently located very near to Transahara festival.

The charming riad hotel is a perfect place to chill and relax during the times you are not at the festival, as it has an amazing pool area overlooking the desert and even spa facilities.

DAY 5-6

For the rest of day 5 and day 6, we will be dancing at Transahara, enjoying the unique lineup and other festival activities.

For our dinners together and just to chill, the magic creators of MAEV Events will set up a charming bohemian nomad village close to the festival.

This way we will always have a cozy environment nearby where we can meet and hangout together

DAY 7

Checking out of Riad Xaluca at noon, we will depart to travel back to Ouarzazate, where we will spend the last night with a nice dinner together at our last hotel. On the morning of day 8, the journey back to the drop off point starts after breakfast.
